1. The German language courses for the artillery unit in the barracks installation on August-Bebel-Strasse, Frankfurt/Oder (O 53/V 53), started on 22 December 1950. The instructions were given two evenings per week. The political officer of the unit was a major. The courses were given in seven groups averaging about 20 officers each. The groups were composed of officers ranging in rank from lieutenant to field grade. About 30 field grade officers, including the colonel of the unit, attended the course. The first lesson was attended by 26 officers, the third lesson, however, by only 6. The low attendance was explained by the fact that the officers concerned were on duty. The artillery unit had [redacted] its chief of staff was Lieutenant Colonel Makarenko (fnu).

2. Soviet civilian Afilaov (fnu) was in charge of the language instructions in the officers' school at the former Teachers' College. His predecessor, one Altinov (fnu), was allegedly in Moscow.*

* [redacted] the unidentified AAA Div, possibly the 32nd, and probably to the division's regiment commanded by Colonel Krainov (fnu), and whose chief of staff is Lieutenant Makarenko (fnu).
